

BOARD OF COOPERATIVE EDUCATIONAL SERVICES (BOCES)

The prime function of BOCES is the provision of educational and administrative services which individual school districts cannot efficiently or effectively provide for themselves. By working with other districts through BOCES, services can be provided on a more cost-effective basis.

The final decision to contract for a new service through BOCES rests with the Board of Education after receiving a detailed recommendation and description of the service from the superintendent of schools.