

SUMMER PROGRAMS

Academics at the University of Virginia – This summer enrichment program has a senior and junior enrichment program. Both programs are designed to address the special challenges and opportunities facing teenagers as they begin the transition to young adulthood, college, and beyond. There are 2 and 4-week sessions that are available for both programs. For more information, visit www.4starscamps.com.

Alfred University- This College offers an array of summer programs. They are offering Creative Writing, Astronomy, Business, Science & Engineering, Swimming, and Equestrian workshops. They are all one-week workshops offered throughout the summer. For more information, visit www.alfred.edu/summer.

Boston University PROMY'S -

Boston University offers a program in mathematics for young scientists. From July 1 to August 11, 2007, PROMYS will offer an intensive experience in creative mathematical exploration to approximately 65 ambitious high school students with an exceptionally strong interest in mathematics. For more information please visit www.promys.org.

Carnegie Mellon Summer Pre-College Programs- Discover Carnegie Mellon. If you are going to be a Junior or Senior in high school, consider spending six weeks in one of the six distinct Pre-College programs. You'll have the opportunity to take college coursework, meet people from all over the country and have the time of your life. The different programs that are available are Architecture, Art, Design, Drama, and Music. Application deadline is June 1, 2007. You may visit www.cmu.edu/enrollment/pre-college

Cornell Summer College – Cornell's award winning Summer College Programs for High School Students offers 1 and 3-week programs for talented juniors, and seniors from around the world. Participants live on campus, take fascinating courses with Cornell faculty members, earn college credits, build confidence for college during writing, study-skills, and admissions workshops, and explore careers and academic majors. To learn more about this exciting program, you can visit www.sce.cornell.edu.

Duke University – Talent Identification Program- has several exciting summer opportunities for gifted students around the world. They offer a Pre-College Program, Global Dialogues Institute, Great Debates Institute, Leadership Institute, and a Domestic and International Field Studies. They offer all sorts of programs. Visit www.tip.duke.edu to read more about the summer opportunities available at Duke TIP and to download application forms.

Georgetown University Summer Program- Juniors in this program enroll in one or two lower division undergraduate courses appropriate to their interests, background, and previous achievement. As members of the Georgetown community, participants will have the opportunity to attend college classes, benefit from the services provided by the University, participate in programs planned by the counseling staff, and learn the importance of time management. By learning to balance their time between academic, social, volunteer, and athletic activities, these students will be giving themselves a head start for the future. For more information on this visit www.georgetown.edu/ssce/sumspec.htm.

Girl's Leadership Workshop- The Girl's Leadership Workshop is an international social justice leadership program for girls at Eleanor Roosevelt's home in upstate New York. Drawing on this vision and legacy of Mrs. Roosevelt, the nine-day GLW summers programs are exciting, fun and empowering experiences for girls who are interested in social justice leadership and want to develop friendships with like-minded peers and adult mentors. Girls in the 9th or 10th grade may apply. For more information and an application, please visit www.ervk.org.

Harvard Summer School – This is a vibrant community of motivated students and distinguished faculty that will satisfy your intellectual curiosity. You can earn academic credit and explore Harvard University. There are over 200 courses available with special programs in drama, math, and writing. For more information call (617)495-3192 or visit them online at ssp@hude.harvard.edu.

Hudson Mohawk AHEC Summer Scholars – Summer Scholars is a summertime careers awareness/employment program for high school students interested in the healthcare/medical field, who will be entering grades 10, 11 or 12 in the fall. To learn more about this program, you may visit www.hmahec.org.

Ithaca Summer College- offers one, three and five-week sessions. This allows students to experience college life. They offer a wide variety of courses such as: acting, health sciences, musical theater performance, sports management, science fiction and film, structure and function of the human body, anthropology and much more. For more information please visit www.ithaca.edu/summercollege.

Johnson & Wales University – The Culinary Arts and Baking & Pastry Arts program build upon your knowledge of these fields. Choose one of two levels of culinary arts or baking & pastry arts, or one level of culinary nutrition, based on which topics best meet your educational needs. Visit the Guidance Office for an application.

The Junior Statesman Summer School- This program is an exciting opportunity for student leaders. Located on the campuses of Georgetown, Princeton, Yale, Stanford, and Northwestern, this unique program includes three core components: a rigorous curriculum, student debates, and exciting speakers programs. For more information about this school, please visit their website at www.jsa.org.

Kroka Expeditions – Summer Earth Living Skills Camps– This is an Earth Living Skills School dedicated to assisting young people in developing strong character, responsibility, community and a sense of place and harmony with nature. All of our programs offer sustainable community living experiences balanced with state of the art instruction in adventure sports and the ancient art of wilderness living. To learn more about this, visit www.kroka.org.

Landmark Volunteers – Youth Across America – This summer program will allow you to work directly to help further the missions of important organizations and to improve the world around you. Summer programs are two weeks. You can visit www.landmarksummer.org to see a full list of the 60 program opportunities that they have to offer.

Lebanon Valley College – Daniel Fox Youth Scholars Institute – provides a week-long academic and social learning experience for exceptional students. Programs that are offered are in the areas of Arts and Humanities, Sciences and Social Sciences. For further information or an application, please visit www.lvc.edu/youth-scholars.

Maine 2007 Photography & Filmmaking Summer Camps- This is a 1, 2, or 4-week workshop for talented high school students. The Maine Photographic Workshops in Rockport, Maine has provided talented and enthusiastic high school students with the opportunity to participate in intensive, hands-on workshops in photography, filmmaking, and film acting and digital media. These special “summer camps” provide an opportunity to learn alongside some of the world’s respected artists, to work with the latest technology, and to learn the advanced methodology of both film and photography. For more information, please visit www.highschoolartists.com or call 877-577-7700.

National High School Music Institute at Northwestern University - The programs of study that are offered are: Composition, Jazz, Music Education and Conducting, Piano, Strings, Voice, Winds and Percussion, and Classical Guitar. This is an application process as well as an audition. For more information please visit www.music.northwestern.edu/nhsmi.

New York State Summer School of the Arts – There are eight component schools for this program. They are School of Ballet, School of Choral Studies, School of Dance, School of Jazz, School of Media Arts, School of Orchestral Studies, School of Theatre, and School of Visual Arts. The summer sessions last from two to four weeks. For more information about these schools, visit their website at www.emsc.nysed.gov/nysssa.

Norwich University Summer Program – Future Leader Camp is designed to focus on individual and team leadership skills utilizing a combination of adventure, survival and physical training. Participants face daily obstacles that require them to think before they act. Additional information can be obtained at www.norwich.edu or by calling the FLC Office at (802)485-2531.

NYU Pre-College Summer Camp- Camps are designed to be both fun and challenging and are one to five weeks in length. You will be able to choose from programs such as: cartooning, digital movie making, digital photography, fashion design, video game design and much more. Classes and activities are full day, five days a week. Class sizes are small to ensure individualized attention. For further information please visit www.scps.nyu.edu/sumcamp.

Operation Enterprise –

Jump start your career with our weeklong summer program that provides high school and college students with the essential skills needed to succeed in the business world. This weeklong program is put together by the American Management Association. For further information please visit www.amanet.org/oe.

Polytechnic University-

- The Summer Research Institute is a six-week full-time summer commitment beginning in July and ending in mid August. Students will be a part of a research effort focused on a problem formulated by a student in conjunction with a faculty mentor.
- The Mathematics Institute and SAT Prep Program is a six-week summer experience is designed to help students enhance their analytical skills, knowledge of math, increase their SAT scores and expose them to engineering.

For further information, please call (718) 637-5944, visit www.poly.edu/yes or email asanchez@poly.edu.

Saint Rose Summer Academy- This is a summer academy for grades 6-10. There are many different sessions to choose from. You can choose from Music, Cultural Passport, Writing, Performing Arts, Science & Technology, and Theater Programs. For further information, please call 518-454-5144.

Savannah College of Art and Design – offers two different programs. The Rising Star Program is a five-week residential program in Savannah GA, for students who have completed their junior year of high school and are ready for a pre-college experience. The SCAD Summer Seminars are a one-week residential summer programs in Atlanta and Savannah, GA. Students participate in two five-day workshops, receive individualized instruction, and have access to state of the art facilities. This program is designed for students who have completed their freshman, sophomore or junior years of high school. For more information about these programs, visit www.scad.edu/summer or call 800-869-7223.

Springfield College Athletic Training Student Workshop - is intended for high school students interested in careers in athletic training and sports medicine. It offers lectures, demonstrations, and practice sessions on athletic injury prevention and care, as well as presentations on career options and professional preparation. Sports Safety Training and CPR certification are offered as part of the curriculum. For further information about this program, call 413-748-5287 or email specialprograms@spfldcol.edu.

Summer Institutes at Marist College-offers four different institutes for the summer. They offer: The Business Institute, Environmental Science Institute, The Game Institute (Online) and The Sports Communication Institute. To find out more information on these institutes please visit www.marist.edu/summerinstitutes.

Summer @ Rensselaer- This summer, Rensselaer is offering enrichment programs and athletic camps to stimulate their minds and exercise their bodies. This is an exciting time to be considering Rensselaer a place where enthusiasm and innovation are the very hallmarks of our programs and classes. Visit www.rpi.edu/summer to see an updated list of programs, download applications or registrations, and find more detailed information.

Union College – Summer Science Workshop- This unique science enrichment program is designed for talented high school students interested in the science and health professions. The program will provide both college-level classroom and laboratory experience as well as career guidance in the health professions and scientific research. For more information on this workshop, please call 518-388-6746 or email pytelb@union.edu.

United States Military Academy – hosts two sessions of the Annual Summer Leaders Seminar. The sessions are June 2-8 and June 9-15. This seminar, which is held at West Point, provides outstanding high school juniors the opportunity to gain a better understanding of the academic, physical and leadership development programs at a service academy that feature small classes, a caring faculty, professional career preparation, and a foundation for future graduate study. For more information, please visit <http://forms.admissions.usma.edu/AL> .